DISCLAIMER

1. LIQUID DAMAGE - Please be aware that liquid damage causes corrosion to the main-board of your device. We will try our utmost to remove all corrosion but cannot guarantee the fault or another fault may arise. This is due to extent of damage that liquid can cause.
2. I understand that my device is covered under warranty for a fault that may arise directly related to the repair itself. Excluding all physical damage by myself that may occur after the repair.
3. I understand the time frame given to me is a guideline and should there be a problem with the repair, Repairmydevice will contact me to give an updated time frame.
